Terms and Conditions

The Washington Regency Society (WRS) is a social and educational organization in which members and guests participate at their own risk. You agree to follow all rules established by the WRS or your membership is forfeit without reimbursement. You agree to not publicly discuss, badmouth, flame, or directly contact WRS leaders or members with problems, and will direct all concerns to society@waregency.org. It is your responsibility and risk for consuming any provided food or engaging in any physical activities such as dancing or games that could result in injury. All our leaders and members are volunteers. Fees are collected to cover operational expenses. Anyone who participates in events organized by WRS members does so accepting responsibility for their own wellbeing and holds the leaders and event producers harmless for any injury or accident that may occur.

I have read and agree to the above terms and conditions.
